EATS

You will be able to find a reasonable amount of variety of restaurants around the convention center to grab a quick meal, and most of these are within walking distance. These include: Subway, Red Robin, Denny's, and Chipolte as well as many other fast food restaurants. However, if you are looking for something a little more unique then look no further.

FOOD CARTS

The "cuisine" Portland is famous for. Reasonable prices, delicious eats, and a selection to die for, you can't go wrong with lunch at one of these places.

SALT & STRAW

My favorite is the Sea Salt with Caramel. Dozens of unique flavors, a laid-back atmosphere and delicious waffle cones make for an amazing ice cream experience!

VOODOO DONUTS

Do you like donuts? If your answer is yes, you need to try this hotspot. Dozens of unique fresh-made donuts each day, you will fawn over their amazing creations!

THINGS TO DO

POWELL'S

Powell's Books is an independent bookstore in Portland, Oregon that fills a whole city block with more than a million new, used and out of print books. There are rows and rows of books on four floors...and there are annexes for über special categories. Take a moment to think of a niche genre - they'll have it.

GROUND KONTROL

Did you play arcade games growing up? Still do? Ground Kontrol combines nostalgia and fun for a wicked fun experience. Don't forget your quarters!

THE JAPANESE GARDEN

"The perfect place to rest a tired body or mind" - Tasha Jamison couldn't have said it better. If you enjoy relaxing in a peaceful, quiet, and beautiful garden this is certainly for you.

MICROBREWS AND SPIRITS

The beer scene is undeniably awesome, and you can get a good sense of it by touring local pubs such as BridgePort Brew Pub, MacTarnahan's Tap Room or one of the manyMcMenamins pubs around town.
