INTRODUCTION TO SEVILLE

Located in the south-west of Spain, Seville is the capital and largest city of Andalusia, and the fourth-largest city in Spain.

ALCAZAR

Seville was founded by the Romans, conquered by the Muslims and later incorporated into the Christian Kingdom of Castile. This is the reason why it has preserved so many different styles, from existing Roman features, like the remnants of an aqueduct, a temple in Mármoles Street, ... to Arabic style like the Moorish buildings, the Patio del Yeso in the Alcázar, the city walls, and the main section of the Giralda, bell tower of the Seville Cathedral.

PLAZA DE ESPAÑA

In 1992, coinciding with the fifth centenary of the Discovery of the Americas, the Universal Exposition was held for six months in Seville, on the occasion of which the local transportation infrastructure was greatly improved. Some of the installations remaining at the site after the exposition were converted into the Scientific and Technological Park Cartuja 93.

There is a Theme Park in Seville called "Isla Mágica" full of pirates and sailing thematic. Unfortunately, the park is closed in the winter season so the pirates and sailors have spread all the way through this guide, read on with care!

LANGUAGE

The official language is Spanish and sadly a lot of people will have trouble communicating in English.

Simple but Useful Spanish:

These words and phrases will certainly be helpful. They are pronounced exactly as written with the exception of letter "H", which isn't pronounced at all.

TOURNAMENT VENUE

The Grand Prix is going to be held at FIBES, that is the Congress and Conference Centre in Seville.

FIBES is composed of two buildings, FIBES I and FIBES II, which can be used as a single venue or as two independent premises, completely different in terms of style and function joint by an impressive footbridge.

It is located at the Northern-Eastern part of the city and its address is Avenida Alcalde Luis Uruñuela, 1 (41020 Sevilla).

You can easily get there by using Bus Lines 27 or B4.

Phone: +34 954 47 87 00

There are some interesting links for information about the venue:

Arriving from the Airport

(Taxi 8 min; bus + walking 35min)

Going from the airport to the hotel is almost the same as going to the venue. The best way is to take a taxi (8min) but if you have 35min you can take the bus (2 buses, actually) and walk a little:

- Take the Bus EA at the exit of the airport in direction to “Plaza de Armas” (1 bus stop, 18 min)
- Exit at bus stop “Talbot”
- Walk to the other side of “Autovía Madrid” to the bus stop “Urbanización Huarte”
- Take the bus A28 in direction to “Parque Alcosa” (2 bus stop, 6 min)
- Exit at bus stop “Jardines del Edén”
- Walk north-east in “Calle Tigris” in direction to “Calle Eufrates” (55 m)
- Turn right in “Calle Eufrates” (350 m)
- Turn left in “Calle Casuarina” (76 m)
- Turn right in “Calle Secoya” (85 m)
- Turn left in “Av. de la Innovación”
- The hotel is at your right

Going from the staff hotel to the Venue

(Walking 6 min)

- Walk nordest in “Av. de la Innovación” in direction to “Calle Administrador Gutierrez Anaya” (34 m)
- Turn left in “Calle Administrador Gutierrez Anaya” (220 m)
- Turn left in “Glorieta Palacio de Congresos” (94 m)
- Turn left in “Av. Alcalde Luis Uruñuela”
- The venue is at your right

SEVILLE SAFETY TIPS

The main threat to tourists visiting Seville is pickpockets and bag snatchers who are very expert at what they do and tend to catch out unsuspecting tourists. Keep all money, wallets and purses concealed, flashy jewellery out of sight, and hired cars parked in hotel car parks at night.

Keep your belongings always with you and in sight.

- Don't leave your belongings aside while you talk to somebody.
- Don't hang a bag on a chair when you are in a restaurant.
- Always keep money in wallets and bags.

Be very careful when getting on a full Metro car, particularly when carrying something. After some confusing jostling you might find your wallet missing!

Beware of any character that comes up to you to sell a scarf, flower, tell your fortune, give you an herb, etc. If you take out your wallet to buy or give money, you will be amazed to be told "no, not necessary" as their hand zips or shuts your wallet for you. Later, of course, you will find your money is gone and again be amazed by this skillfull character's sleight of hand.

Be alert if coins or other objects are accidentally dropped in front of you. (As you assist in picking them up, another person might be assisting in the removal of your wallet while you are off guard).

Pay extreme attention if groups of individuals (usually women or kids) suddenly surround you, sometimes holding a paper in front of your view.

EASIEST WAY TO FLY INTO THE CITY

Seville is a city internationally well connected with the rest of Europe. Whether by plane or high speed train, is comfortable to get directions.

Seville has the San Pablo Airport which is just 10 minutes from the venue on the outskirts of the city. It has a public bus system that could be used to reach the city. Also if you want taxi service available to go directly to the event site but at a higher price.

It also has one of the most important railway stations in Spain, the railway station of Santa Justa, which is located in the heart of Seville. This season get high-speed trains from Madrid, a very fast and convenient way to get after a flight from outside the continent.

There is also the possibility of road transport. There are several bus companies that offer this service from Madrid, Valencia and Barcelona as a cheaper option, but also often travel much longer duration and probably less desirable.

ARRIVING FROM THE AIRPORT

Unfortunately, there's no metro option to go from the airport to the venue, neither a direct bus. So, for a cheap way to go there you must take a bus and walk. Think of it as a little training for the GP while you can have a taste of the city!

Bus (24 min) + Walking (20 min)

- Take the Bus EA at the exit of the airport in direction to "Plaza de Armas" (1 bus stop, 18 min)
- Exit at bus stop "Talbot"
- Walk to the other side of "Autovía Madrid" to the bus stop "Urbanización Huarte"
- Take the bus A28 in direction to "Parque Alcosa" (2 bus stop, 6 min)
- Exit at bus stop "Jardines del Edén"
- Walk northeast in "Calle Tigris" in direction to "Calle Eufrates" (55 m)
- Turn right in "Calle Eufrates" (650 m)
- At the roundabout, take the first exit to Calle Tigris (73 m)
- Turn right at "Glorieta Palacio de Congresos" (180 m)
- Turn left at "Av. Alcalde Luis Uruñuela" (100 m)
- The venue Palacio de Congresos e Exposiciones on your right

A single ticket for the Bus EA is 4€ and a single ticket for the bus A28 is 1,40€. Booth can be purchased at the bus.

Timetable of the EA bus:

To Sevilla: from 05:20 to 01:15.

To the airport: from 4:30 to 00:30.

Informations: +34 902 459 954

Taxi (9 minutes)

If you don't want, or you cannot walk, the easy way to go to the venue, is by taxi. The trip will take you just 9 minutes and there is a flat fare to and from the airport of 22,20€, (Monday to Friday, 7h00-21h00) or of 24,75€ (from 21h00-7h00 and in Saturday and Sunday). You can take a taxi just in the exit of the airport.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM

There are several ways for moving around the city, we'll guide you through all of them and hope you choose the one that suits you best.

UNDERGROUND (METRO)

Seville has an underground, yes, but all the stations are in one single line. This means two things: it is impossible to choose an incorrect line, but it is likely that the metro won't suit all your needs. Sadly, it is not even close to the GP venue.

The line is divided into three zones, a single ticket costs 1,35€ for one zone, 1,60€ for two and 1,80€ if you move through all three zones.

You can get a daily ticket for 4,50€ with no zone limit.

If you are planning on using the metro a lot, there are cheaper fares if you purchase a travelcard, starting from 0,82€/trip in a single zone, but the minimum you must buy is a 10€ travelcard.

All the information can be found here: <http://www.metro-sevilla.es/en/tickets-fares>

CITY BUS

The city buses are probably the best way of moving around Seville, counting more than 40 lines and a variety of timetables. There are so many lines that we can't get too much into detail here, just to have the GP covered, lines 27 and B4 stop next to the venue. Both operate approximately from 6:30 to 23:00. The average frequency is 15 minutes.

If you are still at the venue after that, there are three more buses you can catch, at 00:00, 01:00 and 02:00. It is night line A3.

A single trip costs 1,40€ and can be purchased right in the bus.

There are, of course, special fares and travelcards for this as well:

- A daily card costs 5€
- A three days card costs 10€
- A rechargeable card can be purchased with a 7€ minimum amount. In this case, each single trip will cost just 0,69€ or 0,76€ with a transfer.

All travelcards require to pay a 1,50€ deposit.

You can see the lines here in a useful web app:

<http://www.infobustussam.com:9005/TGO/main2.jsf>

Or download the mobile app here: <http://www.tussam.es/index.php?id=495>

TRAM

For using the tram you can use the very same ticket as for the bus, but it has the same downfall as the metro: there is only one line and it is quite far away from the tournament venue. Do not use unless you're using bus tickets with transfer.

TAXI

HOTELS NEAR THE EVENT

If you don't mind to loosen the purse strings to sleep in the neighborhood of the venue, you are lucky because there's a lot of choices and the most interesting is that you can just walk! Yes, more time to sleep (well, let's be honest, for a lot of judges the saved time will not be wasted sleeping)!

Cheap accommodation

If you prefer cheaper accommodation, there are a lot of Hostals and "Pensions" in the old part of the city, where you can stay for from 25€ double room/night.

But you must be aware that they are all far away from the venue so you must take a bus or a taxi to get there. The travel will take between 35 min and more or less one hour, depending on the location.

Toy can easily find them in the mayor hostel searching websites: www.booking.com, www.hostels.com

TOURISM

Seville is a historical city that has remnants of a lot of different cultures. Romans, Muslims, Jews, ancient civilizations, and have lived historical developments that marked the city as the discovery of America or the epoch of the Spanish Inquisition. (Nobody expects them!)

Popular tourism spots

Monuments

The majority of the monuments and areas of interest of the city are located in a small radius along the downtown, so you can visit them with only a walk.

- The Cathedral and the Giralda.

Gothic cathedral finished in 1506 ac. over the remnants of the mosque that was left by the Muslims when the Catholics Kings took the city in 1248 ac. The Giralda is its bell tower, and former minaret of the original mosque. It is the tallest building in Seville, as laws prohibit building anything that could cover the vision of the Giralda from any point of the city.

Tickets: 8€.

Address: Av. De la Constitución s/n. 41001, Seville.

<http://www.catedraldesevilla.es/>

- The Royal Alcazar of Seville.

Is one of the palaces of the Kings of Spain. It was built before the Reconquista, and is originally a Moorish Fort. Inside you can find beautiful rooms and an enormous garden.

Tickets: 9.50€. Supplement for visiting the Royal Chamber: 4.50€

Address: Patio de Banderas s/n. 41004, Seville.

<http://www.alcazarsevilla.org/>

- The Golden Tower (Torre del oro)

Military watchtower built by the Muslims on 1220. It used to be a control point that watched the access to the city via the Guadalquivir river.

Address: Paseo de Cristobal Colón s/n. 41001, Seville.

Places to visit

- Maria Luisa's Park and Plaza España

This park was donated to the city in the late 1800s, and prepared along the Plaza España for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929. In the park are located some museums. Plaza España has also been used as a location of lots of films. For example, is the Palace of Naboo at Star Wars Episode II.
Address: Av. De María Luisa s/n. 41013, Seville.

- The Jewry (Barrio de Santa Cruz)

The Jewry is the most famous district in Seville. Is composed of very small streets, and have beautiful squares full of vegetation and flowers.
Address: Plaza de Santa Cruz, 41004, Seville.

- Metropol Parasol ("Las setas" as called commonly)

The newest monumental construction of Seville, build full in wood, is a modern square prepared for spectacles and usually full of life. In its underground there's a museum with a Roman excavation, and in the top is a restaurant and one of the most beautiful views of Seville.
Tickets (for visiting the top floor): 3€.
Address: Plaza de la Encarnación s/n, 41003, Seville
<http://www.setasdesevilla.com/>

- University of Seville (Old Tobacco Factory)

While the University of Seville is placed all along the city, making it a university city, its main building is an old tobacco factory near the main historical places of the city. Make sure to visit its insides.
Address: Calle San Fernando, 4, 41004, Seville.

Museums

- Fine Arts Museum

Once a convent, in 1835 its building was converted into a museum. Right now it has the second biggest painting collection of Spain, mainly with works from the 17th to the 19th century.

Tickets: UE citizens: free. Other countries: 1.50€.

Address: Plaza del Museo, 9, 41005, Seville.

<http://www.museodebellasartesevilla.es/>

- Archeological Museum of Seville

The museum is located at the Pavilion of the Renaissance, built for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929. The building itself is a work designed by Anibal González, a famous architect of the 20th century. Its main collections are from Italica, a Roman city near Seville; and “El Carambolo” treasure, found near Seville, from the Tartessian.

Tickets: UE citizens: free. Other countries: 1.50€.

Address: Plaza de América s/n, 41013, Seville.

- Aquarium of Seville

Recently opened, is the newest place to visit in Seville. Offers a special night with sharks.

Tickets: General: 15€. Night with sharks: 50€.
