Welcome to Madrid

Madrid is the capital city of Spain. With a population of over 3,2 million people, it is also the largest city in Spain and the third in the European Union!

Located roughly at the center of the Iberian Peninsula, it has historically been a strategic location and home for the Spanish monarchy. Even today, it hosts major international regulators of the Spanish language and culture, such as the Royal Spanish Academy and the Cervantes Institute.

Even though Madrid has a modern infrastructure, it has preserved the look and feel of its vast history, including numerous landmarks and a large number of National Museums.

Language

The official language is Spanish and sadly a lot of people will have trouble communicating in English.

Simple but useful spanish

These words and phrases will certainly be helpful. They are pronounced exactly as written with the exception of letter “H”, which isn’t pronounced at all.

Easiest ways to arrive to Madrid

Madrid's connections are excellent with the rest of Spain as well as with the rest of Europe and the world. The most common ways to get there are by plane, train and car.

By plane

If you live in the islands or you're out of Spain, this is the fastest and the cheapest system to reach Madrid.

The Airport Adolfo Suarez Madrid-Barajas is located in the district of Barajas, twelve kilometers northeast of Madrid. With more than 187 million passengers in 2013, Barajas has become the fourth largest airport in Europe by number of passengers.

How to go to the city centre from the airport

Although there are busses, the two best ways to reach the center of Madrid is the subway and taxi.

Subway (Metro)

The cheapest way to get downtown and save surface potential bottlenecks.

If you fly to T1, T2 & T3 to Vodafone Sol: Time 39 minutes, price 5€ (you must buy normal ticket + Airport supplement).

Itinerary: First you may take Line 8 up to Nuevos Ministerios, then you must take Line 10 up to Plaza de España and there take Line 3 to Vodafone Sol.

If you fly to T4 to Vodafone Sol: Time 43 minutes, price 5€ (you must take normal ticket + Airport supplement).

Itinerary: Take Line 8 up to Nuevos Ministerios, there you must take Line 10 up to Plaza de España and there take Line 3 to Vodafone Sol.

Bus

There are several bus lines that will take you to almost anywhere in the city. They typically run every 15 minutes and the ticket is purchased directly at the bus (cash only).

200. Airport to Avenida America.

Price 1,50€.

Stars at 5:00 am to 23:00. Timetable here (spanish).

You can take this line on:

T1, T2, T3 & T4. Arrivals zone

T1, T2 & T3. Departures zone

203. Express Line Airport – Atocha Renfe.

Price 5€.

Works 24 hours every days, frequency 15-20 minutes, 35 minutes at night. For payment, only cash is accepted.

Larger notes than 20€ are not accepted.

T1 to Atocha: 30 minutes.

T2 to Atocha: 35 minutes.

T4 to Atocha: 40 minutes.

Train

2,60€ - from 11 to 38 minutes, depends on destination.

The Cercanías train departs from T4 only every 30 minutes. If you fly to T1, T2 or T3 you can take the free shuttle to get to T4. The approximate journey length is the following:

Chamartín: 11 minutes.

Nuevos Ministerios: 18 minutes.

Atocha: 25 minutes.

Méndez Álvaro: 29 minutes.

Príncipe Pío: 38 minutes.

You can check the timetables here (only Spanish). As an example:

From Airport T4 to Nuevos Ministerios (every 30 min)

First Train: 5.58

Last Train: 00:14

From Nuevos Ministerios to Airport T4 (every 30 min)

First Train: 5.22

Last Train: 23:53

More info here.

Taxi

There is a flat fare of 30€ if you are travelling to anywhere inside Calle 30, which is more or less the city center. No supplements can be added to this fare.

For any other destination, the minimum fare is 20€ for the first 10 km.

By Train

Madrid has two train stations, Chamartin and Atocha, depending on the point of origin you will arrive to one or the other.

If you want to come to Madrid by train, you can check timetables and fares in RENFE web (Spanish trains operator).

By Car

Madrid has 6 principal highways numbered 1 through 6. The number advances in clockwise direction.

In case you are willing to drive, as Madrid is located in the center of Spain, it is the starting point for all of the main highways. These highways are more or less radial and are called A1 through A6. Their distribution is the following:

A1: Comes from the Basque Country (Irún) passing Burgos. If you come from France it is likely that you are taking this highway, A1, or A2 (the next one in this list).

A2: Comes from Barcelona passing Zaragoza.

A3: Comes from Valencia,

A4: Comes from Andalucía (Cádiz, Sevilla, Córdoba, Jaén...)

A5: Comes from Extremadura and Portugal.

A6: Comes from Galicia (La Coruña).

The Venue

IFEMA, Feria de Madrid. Av. Partenón, 5, 28042, Madrid, Spain.

IFEMA is the Trade Fair Institution of Madrid. Its 30 year experience of staging trade fairs has made it the most important of its kind in Spain and one of the leaders in Europe.

How to get there from the airport

By Subway (Metro)

The best way to access Feria de Madrid from anywhere in the city is using the metro. Next to the entrance, you can find the Campo de las Naciones metro station on Line 8. This line directly connects Feria de Madrid with the different terminals of Barajas International Airport.

If you fly to T4. You must take the Line 8 to Campo de las Naciones. Price 4,5€. 14 Minutes

If you fly to T1, T2 & T3. You must take the Line 8 to Campo de las Naciones. Price 4,5€. 9 Minutes.

By Taxi

Feria de Madrid is very near the airport. The estimated prize is 23€ (supplement of 3€ included).

How to Get There from the city centre

By Subway (Metro)

You must go to Nuevos Ministerios (Metro L6, L10 & L8) and there take L8 to Campo de las Naciones.

Price: 1,5€.

Time: 14 Minutes.

By Bus

To take the bus is not the easiest way to get to the venue, and we don't recommend it at all. But if you want to take the bus, or you don't have another option, this is the fastest way: go to Intercambiador de Avenida América (Metro Line 6 & 7), there you must take Route 122 -Avda. de América-Campo de las Naciones-Feria de Madrid.

Time estimated: 51 minutes.

Price: 1,5€ only cash.

By car

Feria de Madrid is linked by road to Madrid's major access routes and ring roads: the M11 (Exits 5 and 7), the M40 (Exits 5, 6 and 7) and the A2 (Exit 7). The South, North and East Entrances to the exhibition complex provide direct access to the various parking areas.

How to get around

(public transportation system)

Subway (Metro)

Metro de Madrid began operating in 1919 with Sol connecting Cuatro Caminos. It currently has one of the largest networks in the world with nearly 300 kilometres of roads.

Metro de Madrid is divided into two zones: “A” and “B”.

A Zone covers most of the city itself.

B Zone is divided into three sub-zones and takes you to the surroundings and some of the nearby cities.

Operating Hours: from 6:00 am to 1:30 am. At 1:30 am, the last train exit from each line edge.

Fares: As others metro systems all over the multiverse,

there are different types of tickets:

A Single Trip Ticket depends on the number of stations you are travelling through. It will cost 1'50 € for up to 5 stations. Further from that the cost increases 0'10 € per station, until a maximum cost of 2 €.

A 10 Trip Ticket costs 12'20 €. If you are planning to go sightseeing this is your best option. You can also use this ticket in City Buses!

If your journey includes the airport you will need to pay an airport supplement which costs 3 €.

Vending Points: You can purchase these tickets in the vending machines at the entrance of the Metro, at tobacco stores or in newsstands.

| Zona | 1 day | 2 days | 3 days | 5 days | 7 days |
|------|-------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| A | 8,40€ | 14,20€ | 18,40€ | 26,80€ | 35,40€ |
| T | 17€ | 28,40€ | 35,40€ | 50,80€ | 70,80€ |

Bus

With a fleet of 2,000 buses that travel over 200 lines, buses are sometimes the best way to reach certain destinations. There are two types of buses in Madrid:

Intracity buses (blue) are buses that move inside the Capital City (Madrid).

Intercity buses (green) which connect towns and cities to each other.

You will probably be more interested in the buses to move inside the city: the blue buses.

Operating Hours: Each line has its own timetable. Usually from 6:00 to 23:00. Check each line.

Fares:

Single Trip Ticket: 1.5€

Single trip ticket – Express Airport: 5€

Metrobus (10 Trip Ticket): 12.20€

10 trip-ticket/one transfer included (bus+bus): 18.30€

For further information you can also visit this link.

Train proximity or Cercanías Train System

Commuter trains connect different parts of the city, also coming from the main towns of the province of Madrid.

Operating hours: The first train on the line edge leaves around 5:30 h, the last train on the line edge leaves around 23:00 h. Check the specific timetable for your station.

You can find the timetables here (only Spanish).

Fares: The price of a Cercanías train ticket is based on the amount of zones you want to cross. One or two zones cost 1,70€. You can purchase a 10 trips ticket with a price reduction.

Taxi

Taxis in Madrid are comfortable and the price is not particularly high. These are the taxi phone numbers you will need to use in order to call for a cab:

In the city: +34 91 547 82 00 or +34 91 371 21 31

At the airport: +34 685 314 267 or +34 666 55 77 55

Touristic ticket

The Touristic Ticket allows unlimited travel on subways, buses and commuter trains. You can buy the ticket with a validity of 1, 2, 3, 5 and 7 calendar days.

The Touristic Ticket can be purchased at all metro stations, in tourist information offices and in some kiosks and tobacconists. It is also possible to buy it online at the following link: Tourist ticket - Buy.

The A zone corresponds to the limits of the municipality of Madrid, which is usually the most demanded by tourists.

The T zone will only be needed for people who are traveling to the suburbs.

All children under 11 years have a 50% discount on rates. Children under 4 years can travel for free.

Monuments

Palacio Real

The Palacio Real is an enormous renaissance building constructed during the 18th and 19th centuries and it is one of the most popular attractions in the city. It is the official residence of the Spanish Royal family, although they only use it for state occasions. There is an entry fee of 10€ but it will be closed if there are state acts planned.

Address: Calle Bailen

Metro: Opera (L2-L5)

Sabatini Gardens / Jardines de Sabatini

A small park that follows the French style of Versailles Gardens, but in a reduced size, that is part of the Royal Palace. There is a pool, statues and fountains among the trees and flowers.

Puerta de Alcalá

As one of the icons of Madrid, this ornamental gate was built by King Carlos III in his project of improving the appearance of Madrid. Next to it you can walk into Park of Retiro for a peaceful rest or go to Lagasca Street and try the best burger in Madrid, in Alfredo's Barbacoa.

Address: Plaza de la Independencia, 1

Metro: Retiro (L2)

Plaza Mayor

Large square with arcades that in old times was the place of the city market. Now it is one of the main tourist attractions, with restaurants, peddlers and artists.

Metro: Sol (L1-L2-L3) and Opera (L2-L5)

Puerta del Sol

The heart of the city of Madrid. This square is the starting point (Km zero) of all national roads. It has the most followed clock in Spain to celebrate New Year's Eve and, of course, a lot of shops, bars and restaurants. The longest street in Madrid, Calle Alcalá, starts in this square. Besides, the commercial streets Preciados and El Carmen start here.

Metro: Sol (L1-L2-L3)

Less know places

It is an ancient Egyptian temple that has been reconstructed in a Park in Madrid. It dates from the 4th century BC and was donated and brought to Madrid in 1971.

Metro: Plaza España (L10, L3)

Casa de Campo

There are two very big gardens in Madrid that were used in the past by the Kings of Spain for hunting and picnics. One of them is Casa de Campo (Country House), a large extension of forests in which our event will take place. Apart from the forest itself there is a lake, a zoo, an amusement park (Parque de Atracciones de Madrid), an aerial tramway, sport center and a lot of wild animals (birds, rabbits, squirrels...).

Metro: Casa de Campo (L10, L5), Batán (L10) and Lago (L10)

Retiro Park

The other garden and the favorite of Madrid's people is the Retiro, a wonderful oasis of calm located at the East of the center of Madrid. 'The green lung of Madrid', as it is called, has a wide number of statues, fountains and commemorative monuments that have turn it into a real open air sculpture museum and a wonderful place for walking, sailing in a boat on the lake, playing cards or simply resting.

Metro: Retiro (L2), Ibiza (L2)

Others cities around Madrid

San Lorenzo del Escorial

Village to the Northwest of Madrid, famous for his Monastery, build between 1563 and 1584. It's one of the Historic Spanish Royal Sites and functions as Monastery, Royal Palace, Museum and School. On November 2nd 1984, UNESCO declared The Royal Seat of San Lorenzo del Escorial a World Heritage Site.
