GP Santiago 2018: Travel Guide

Welcome Traveller!

You must be asking where has your spark taken you this time and why have you ended up here. Well, let me introduce you to my world and give you some useful information for the upcoming adventure...

Chile is an everflowing mana plane located by the very southern end of the multiverse, its inhabitants are friendly most of the times. But be careful, some of these lands are also full of danger. Among residents you'll find a bunch of mages, geomancers, artificers and all sorts of creatures coming from the vast sea, glorious mountains, dense forests, infinite plains and deep marshes, beautiful landscapes this place can offer to your senses. Perhaps, you'll have some time to visit them later, but there's something to do first: You've been summoned here for a massive planeswalker encounter in which you'll have the chance to show your actual strength and amazing skills... who knows? Maybe you'll rise up victorious by the end of it.

The gathering will take place at Gran Palace hotel in Santiago city, Chile. In order to get there safe from Phyrexians and other dark forces is highly recommended the use of some of the following tips and data.

Good luck, Planeswalker! You will need it.

GP Santiago 2018: Travel Guide

1. ENTERING CHILE

To enter Chile, you have to present your identification documents, like your ID card and/or passport. Also, depending on your country of origin, a stamped visa.

Citizens from South America, the European Union, the USA, Canada and Australia do not need tourist visas. However, some countries must pay a tax in cash (reciprocity tax) upon arriving the airport in Chile.

Please, remember that if you're bringing animal or vegetable products, upon entering the territory, you must declare them to the Agriculture and Livestock Service (Servicio Agrícola y Ganadero – SAG); in this way, you'll be contributing to protect the varied Flora and Fauna of the country.

Chilean Law establishes that every eighteen years old or older person, MUST DECLARE under oath his or her belongings before entering the country. this process is made through an AFFIDAVIT provided in conjunction with The Agricultural and Livestock Service/SAG. This document has to be filled out by every person entering the territory.

If you carry or bring with you, or in your clothes, baggage (bags, suitcases, backpacks, etc,) and any other means you may use to transport products, parts or subproducts from animal or plant origin (without commercial cargo Characteristics) no matter the amount or time passed from their obtention, they MUST BE DECLARED. An Officer from The Agriculture and Livestock Service (SAG) will evaluate if the products are in proper conditions to enter the country.

DON'T TAKE RISKS, DECLARE. For further questions and information ask any Agriculture and Livestock Service (SAG) officer before you hand in your AFFIDAVIT.

2. CURRENCY

Since 1975, the Chilean currency has been the Chilean Peso, with coins equal to 10, 50, 100 and 500 pesos and bills of 1,000, 2,000, 5,000, 10,000 and 20,000 pesos (CLP).

In many cities of the country it is relatively easy to find ATMs that provide local currency. At the same time, most of the established stores allow paying with international bank cards.

Although some shops in Chile accept Dollars and Euros, it's highly recommended to get Chilean Pesos in official currency exchange offices as the exchange rate will be better.

Exchange value against dollar is 1 dollar = 600 CLP, but it varies daily. To avoid any problem and for your own safety, avoid any exchange from non-authorized places .

Taxi

Santiago airport has introduced a controlled route system known as “Vía Controlada” that provides taxi service. The ground transportation desk it is located at the luggage claim area and you can pick up a taxi without request it previously.

There are two different types of taxi:

- Black and Yellow: the regular ones. Run with a distance meter.

- Blue: the tourists ones. Taxis charges are fixed according and depending to the destination. When pre paying the fare, passengers get a voucher showing their destination, fare and taxi stand location in the Vía Controlada area where their designated vehicle will be on standby.

This new system allows passengers to know in advance the fare charged for the transportation when picking up a taxi and they can make sure that the taxi drivers have a valid licence to drive from the airport.

If you wish to pre-book a taxi, you can do so directly from any of the authorized airport vehicle services.

4. Moving around in the city

Moving through Santiago, and Chile in general is quite simple, especially if you speak spanish, you should be able to reach anywhere without problems in the most central areas of the city.

The public transport system in the city is paid with a single card with a set rate to travel on the Metro (subway) and Micros (buses).

The oficial payment is the Bip! Card, And there are different rates for adults. Students, and endelrly. You can buy ir for $1550 CLP (2.6USD) in subway stations, malls, and Bip! Points. Charges for this card start at a minimun of $ 100 CLP (0.2 USD).

-Micros (buses) Price: $ 640 CLP (1.06 USD) at all times
-Metro Price: $ 740 CLP (1.25 USD) during peak hours, $ 660 CLP (1.1 USD) at peak times and $ 610 CLP (1.01 USD) in low demand hous.

The System performs a proportional payment of the second fare to complete the combined total cost and allows to travel between different buses in the same direction and a subway ride to the same cost for two hours.

With the same card you can pay several routes, but it makes only the combination of the rate for one.

5. Venue Information

The Convention Center of the Gran Palace Hotel, home for the Grand Prix Santiago 2018, is located at Huérfanos 1178. In this place will be accommodated all the judges of the event.

It is close to 4 subway stations (Subway station Plaza de Armas on Line 5, Subway station Universidad de Chile and Subway station La Moneda on Line 1 and Subway Station Santa Ana on Line 2) so you can get there in quick, easy and safe way. also you get access to the main touristic events and the hotels in the city.

The halls were the main event and side activities of GP Santiago will happen have a capacity for 1200 people and 1.800 m2. This allows the development of a big event, securing the comfort of all the players and a nice experience for all attendees of the tournament.

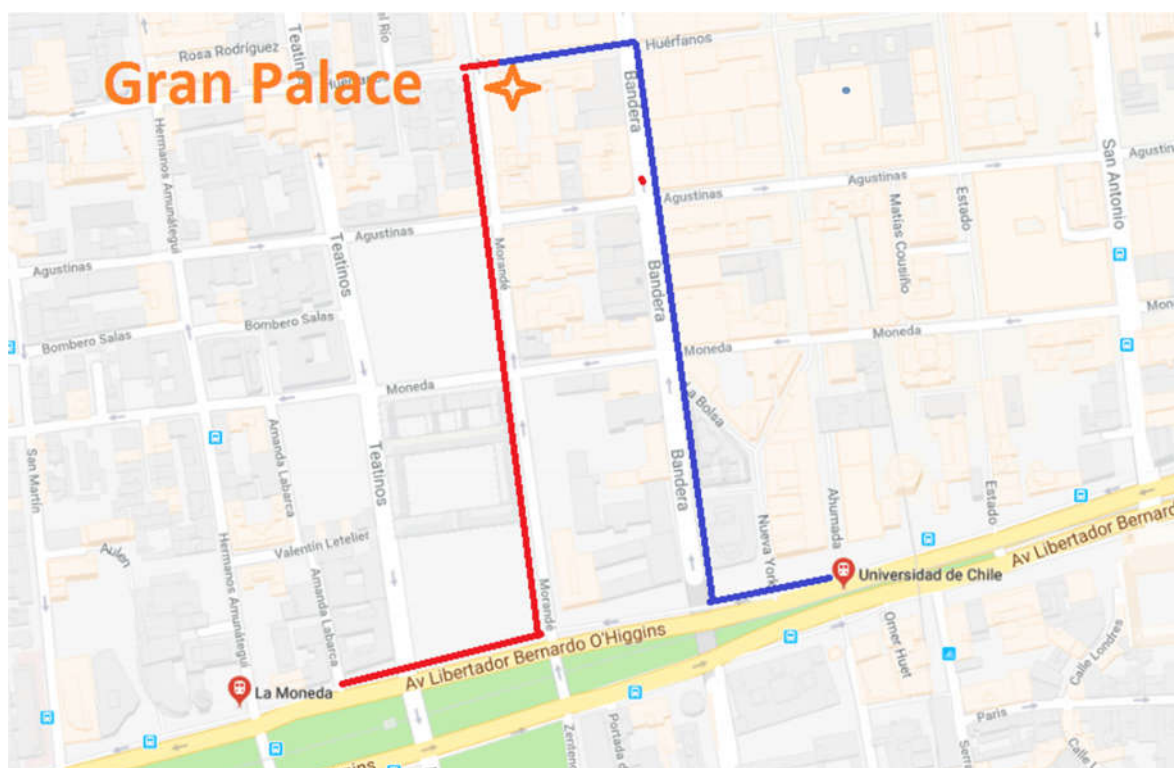

GP Santiago 2018: Travel Guide

Going from airport to the Venue.

Once in any of the three subway stations mentioned in “Airports and getting to the city” go straight to the subway. After paying the ticket, pass through the tourniquet zone and take the wagon in the “Dirección Los Domínicos”. Descend in the station La Moneda and take “Morande exit”.

Once outside you will find a great avenue, which is Av. Libertador Bernardo O’iggins, also called Alameda.

From here you have to walk approximately one block east, until Morandé street, turn north and walk 3 blocks, from where you will arrive to Huérfanos street, then walk 100 meters east, and welcome to the Grand Palace Hotel.

As an interesting fact, when you are walking through the alameda and turn in Morandé, you are passing right in front of the Palacio de la Moneda, home of the President of the Republic.

7. Tourist spots

"People of our kind are always looking for knowledge, dear friend! Culture turns into necessity when going through the multiverse. That's why I have some places to show you, give a glimpse to these glorious alternatives and make sure you visit at least one before leaving... You can thank me later, walker!"

7.1 "Palacio de la Moneda"

It is the seat of the President of the Republic of Chile. It also houses the offices of three cabinet ministers: Interior, General Secretariat of the Presidency and General Secretary of Government. It occupies an entire block in downtown Santiago, in the area known as Civic District between Moneda (North Side), Morandé (East), Alameda del Libertador Bernardo O'Higgins (South) and Teatinos street (West)

La Moneda, originally a colonial mint (moneda means coin or currency), was designed by Italian architect Joaquín Toesca. Construction began in 1784 and was opened in 1805, while still under construction. The production of coins in Chile took place at La Moneda from 1814 to 1929.

7.5 “Funicular de Santiago”

The funicular is located at San Cristóbal hill and it's part of the attractions of the Santiago Metropolitan Park. The funicular, which dates from 1925, has been declared a National Monument and is a must-see attraction for tourists and Santiago residents on weekends. The funicular has two stations: one to visit the National Zoo, and another for reaching the summit. The funicular runs for almost 500 meters on a 45 degree inclination, departing from Barrio Bellavista.

The funicular has two carriages, with one displaying a memorial plaque commemorating his holiness John Paul II, who rode in the carriage in 1987 in route to the feet of the Virgin Mary statue located at the hill's summit.

The route from Pio Nono to the top, and then the return from the top has a cost of $2.600 CLP (4.3 USD).

7.6 “Barrio Brasil”

It's a historical neighborhood which is considered national heritage, since it combines neogothic architecture with the Chilean neoclassic style.

The neighborhood was home of the aristocracy during the mid---19th century. However, in the 1940s, rich people moved towards the east part of the city, leaving those huge households in oblivion.

Nowadays it has been renewed, holding cultural and art spaces, nightclubs, restaurants, cafés, and pubs.

If you are looking for dancing, having fun, and enjoying the local gastronomy then, Barrio Brasil is your place! It is located on the heart of Santiago, at “Cumming” station (Line 5).

8. Tours

"It's very common for those like you to feel a little bit lost when arriving a new place. Fortunately for you, there are some options of guided tours in the area, choose the one that suits you better, folk!"

8.1 Free Tour Santiago.

Consisting on a "by feet tour" around the city. It is based on a tip system, starting at 11 dollars (around $6.500 CLP).

These tours are held every day, and have a duration of 4 hours approximately, starting at 10:00am at Plaza de Armas (Arms Square), in front of the Metropolitan Cathedral.

For further information: <http://freetoursantiago.cl/portada.html>

8.2 Turistik.

City Tours on red Double-decker buses, very similar to the ones in cities like New York, London, Madrid and Paris.

This enterprise offers different tours across the city, and some of them are around 34 dollars (20.000 CLP).

Web: <http://www.turistik.cl/>

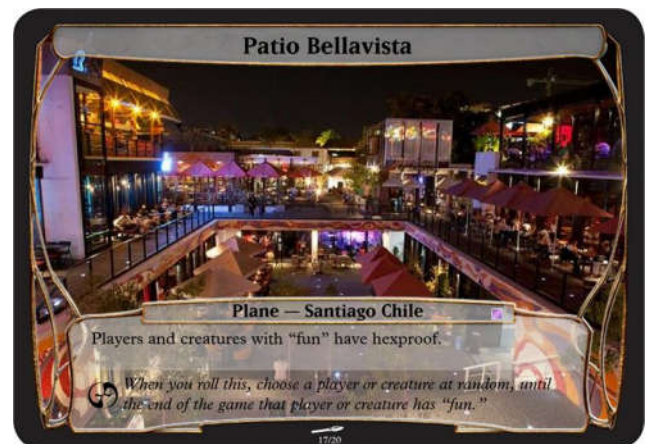

9. Recommendations to visit

“Hey, Walker! Why the sad face? Perhaps you didn’t have the results you wanted or probably you did, but you couldn’t find a good place to celebrate it... Well, let me help you once more! If you want to join the “Fiesta!” with your friends and some locals, here you have a bunch of places to turn your stay in our grounds into an unforgettable memory. ENJOY!”

9.1 “Patio Bellavista”

Located between Santiago and Recoleta, it’s the most representative artistic place in the city, although at the beginning of 19th century, it was characterized for being a catholic an aristocratic zone.

Nowadays, popular bars, cultural centres and international gastronomy coexist here, with the crowded Pio Nono Street as their backbone.

The most famous places to visit are Club La Feria, Club Surreal, Club Dominica 54, Ex Oz, and Patio Bellavista, a highly visited cultural centre that also has restaurants. It is only a few steps from the metro station “Baquedano”

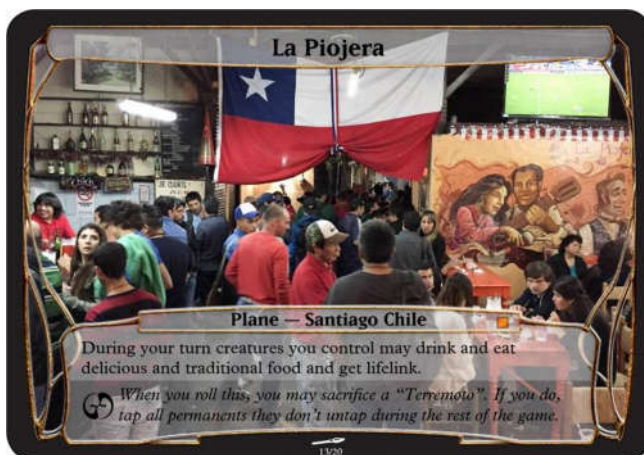

Map: <https://goo.gl/maps/NoscBmGPW1x>

9.2 “La Piojera”

One the most famous “picadas” in Santiago, La Piojera is a remarkable bar full of mysticism and tradition, where you can taste typical Chilean drinks and incredible food at very convenient prices.

It is located in front of the Central Market, just a few steps from the metro station “Puente Cal y Canto” (Line 2), on the street Aillavilu 1030

9.3 “Teclados” Bar - Manuel Montt 634, Providencia.

There is a pub called “Teclados”, which is located a few blocks heading south away from the metro station “Manuel Montt” (Line 1). This pub is well known by offering some extremely delicious French fries, in addition to the regular stuff you’d expect from a bar. The signature fries at Teclados, served with some dip made from sour cream, cheese, meat, and ciboulette in perfect proportions. It is the ideal place to go with some friends to eat and have a drink.

Map : <https://goo.gl/maps/Ya5z22mGaYJ2>

9.4 “Insert Coin” Bar – Irarrazaval 1920, Ñuñoa.

At the moment I heard about this place, I thought “How is it possible that I did not think about it before?”. Yes, Insert Coin is one of the most “unique” ideas in Santiago: a videogame themed bar. Such an awesome place!

It looks like a regular bar, but it has a gamer aesthetic, some couches and LCD screens with a lot of videogaming alternatives.

You can go drinking a cocktail and play FIFA 16 with your friends, or take a gore inspiration and play a Mortal Kombat Tournament, or even go back to your childhood and play Mario Kart or Super Smash Bros.

Quite Fun!.

10. Food And Beverages

"It seems like you are a little hungry and thirsty, dear Traveller. Look around, you'll find many interesting places to reload your mana sources and energy. We have incredible food and beverages here, try something from anywhere if you please, but be careful at trying food from street vendors, we cannot assure sanitary regulations are in rule there. So, if you want to continue being a healthy creature, I recommend you to go straight to regulated/established restaurants and places like the ones listed below."

10.1 "Mercado Central"

If you want to taste typical Chilean gastronomy in a National Monument, this is just the right place. Quoting its web page:

"This place is known for offering the most typical and traditional dishes, seafood, local fruit; and also a good offer due to the quality, freshness and seasonality of food.

People from all social classes come around here, showing the peculiar form of the Chilean mischief. Definitely a place worth visiting whether for everyday shopping, learning more about our culture, gastronomy, typical items, or just to walk around and share."

Mercado Central offers a lot of different dishes related to fish, shellfish, and meat. It's an ideal place to know the local gastronomy and to have a good time with its always friendly people.

11. Useful tips

"Planeswalking can be such a nice experience in a plane like this. Calm and tranquility predominate the places you will be transiting, but you are not free from danger. In order to keep you and your friends safe from dark creatures and unpleasant experiences, especially when the night veil falls upon the sky, I have created a list of tips that you might find useful when exploring our lands. Be sure to keep them in mind!"

- Do not go around on your own, try to do it in groups.
- Do not count money on the street.
- Do not carry many valuable stuff.
- Try to always plan your route beforehand.
- Metro stations close around 11:00pm, so it is advisable to make all your tours before that time. If you are still on the street after that hour, try to find a taxi.
- If you are not thinking on taking any kind of bus from Transantiago, because you do not want to visit remote places (the ones which take long time walking to them), and you are going to take only the metro, then do not buy the Bip! Card. Metro stations sell both cards and tickets.
- Print this guide, it might be useful if you forget any detail once you have arrived to Chile.
- If you arrive after 10:00pm at the airport, the safest bet is to use a transfer service to get to the staff hotel, for it is much cheaper than taking a taxi.

GP Santiago 2018: Travel Guide

13. Currency Exchange houses.

It is highly advisable to exchange money at the exchange houses located on Agustinas street, a block away heading south from Huérfanos (where the GP will be held). The exchange houses there usually buy and sell foreign currency with very good rates, because of the competition among exchange houses nearby.

Currency	Exchange Rate
1 USD	600 CLP
1 Euro	730 CLP
1 Brazilian Real	180 CLP
1 Argentinian Peso	30 CLP
1 Mexican Peso	32 CLP
1 Colombian Peso	0.21 CLP
1 Boliviano	87 CLP
1 Venezuelan Bolivar	60 CLP
1 Uruguayan Peso	21 CLP
1 Costa Rica Colon	1 CLP
1 Peruvian Nuevo Sol	185 CLP

“Planeswalker!

I hope you have enjoyed my company up to here, but I have to switch planes once again. I know these lands are perfect for you and I’m sure you’ll take the best of them with you when the time to go back home comes. Many others have fallen in love with the place, staying or revisiting it. So, if you want to extend your experience here, I deeply recommend you to go to Chile’s beautiful beaches in summer or to visit the immense wonders across this long territory. You won’t regret!

Until the next time, fellow!”.
